STRESS RELEASE HEALTH & WELLBEING: # 44

"I am"

The master of my cells. I can manifest my dreams to change the direction in my career. I will discover all I need to know for this change. The information I need I will read and understand without fear of failure. My feelings will blend with my desires and I will receive the changes in my career gladly. I am balanced into my new career without any fear.

A MESSAGE FROM ELAINE

Many of us ask ourselves questions and fail to find the answers. This brings a space of life to a standstill. If we were to know the all of everthing, remember, the questions would dry up. Honour that our cells do know, and do wait for our enquiries and will touch us only if we ask.

Yes I know the willingness of my cells take me as I am, even if I cheat on them. Our lives hold the right to build more cells and this is why we are the Questioners to expand new cells with their proven facts and clear cut choices.

Lets all do the right thing and enjoy this moment.

With muscle testing we are able to obtain clear answers.

HUMANITIES ROLE

In the Evolution of the Soul

Chapter 4 Page 49

Once upon a time there was a girl lost in the woods. Her people searched for her and eventually gave up. A pair of bears adopted her, fed her and kept her safe. These bears loved her. She became aware of this and felt quite safe from other dangerous animals. The cuddles and playful games they shared strengthened the bonds they enjoyed. She learnt to eat as they did, and she talked their talk and used their body language. If someone had not found her, her life would have continued in this state.

We are all sometimes lost to the animals in our partners. We obey them and play their games, talk their language, wake each day to do as they do, work as they say, and eat as they eat. With infinite love, you can keep yourself separate from your partner without diluting your love for them and without allowing them the power to make you a slave to their animal instincts and desires.

Infinite love asks us to question our behaviour and that of our culture. Why do we accept flaws in our lives without question? Fairytale love never explained this. Everything was perfect. However, it is not. For example, "I will share my time with you, what you get from me will be what I feel like giving at the time." "I will tell you everything, while at the same time I will close my heart and give you a piece of my mind." "I will sleep with you, eat with you and you will get to know me, and put up with my bad habits, or else."

In the past, infinite love was rarely part of a good marriage. Good marriages were based on conditions and obedience to a law. Who formed these laws, who demanded them, who controlled them? With infinite love we can master our own happiness under all conditions.

ELAINES QUOTE THIS MONTH:

Purity of heart, sold us all to believe, values honesty and success remains with the rich and the famous. We are all pure when we love who we are and grow who we are into happy minded beings
