STANDING IN THE NOW RELEASING KARMIC LAW: # 27

I am me.
I can dream
and find for myself doors to open.
When I step through one of these doors I find a way that leads into my dreams.
Each gifted moment in time creates the next moment, the next step and the power of owning these moments is my secret recipe for happiness.
I will then make powerful discoveries for myself since there is a flock of ideas always passing through each moment of my mind.
But until I choose an idea for myself they will always pass me by.
There are great ideas I remember but only as thoughts to behold, not aims achieved.
So the ones that I stop and consider will stop me as time rushes by.
So, in my expectations of fulfilment
I must focus and ask for myself
I must will the idea to become mine.
I ask for myself the wisdom to divine every purpose that confirms the seeds of my ideas so they will come true.

A MESSAGE FROM ELAINE

Did you ever consider the power of thinking: Our thoughts are gifted only by matter in form. Weakness in our lives can never hurt us if we are able to remodel its effects over us. Never stay in a space that allows you to feel alone and weak. It is our mind in thoughts of receiving, using and becoming free. No two people will be asked the same reasons to think, however we are joined in a matrix of illusions with so much to offer us. So research your desires and open your thoughts to think. May values remind us whatever we do we can do well. Love you for this and share you with joy, trust you to be graciously rewarded, feel at peace with what you do and last of all allow wisdom to become the knowingness in every cell rejoicing for who you are to your living intent of successes.

ELAINE'S QUOTE THIS MONTH:

We are the gamekeeper of our private research. Our cells awaken the mind to manifest whatever we ask them. We can trust them because whatever we ask is formed by the gifted seals of the human spirit. The emotions of this powerful mind is love, joy, grace, peace and wisdom.

The matrix contains millions of souls, but our human, although part of the matrix and therefore a hologram of all these souls, still only represents one page in the book of life. The creation planned the earthly return of souls into a human so that the soul could grow into perfection. So the soul of each new child born has walked further on the path of infinity than its parents.

Money comes into our lives when we are ready for it. How we learn to make money is very different to having money work for us. People often think the only way to own it is to earn it. Here is a new law for personal prosperity.

The rich man's soul is addicted to money. Those that have money want desperately to keep it and spend it on their chosen lifestyle. They do not want to share it and it makes them feel superior. Its power is intoxicating and can create hellfire for them. We are looking at money from the wrong direction when we get the following:

- Life would be easier and I'd have more time to do the things I'd love to do.
- I would invest it and live off the interest.
- I would be able to achieve all my dreams.
- Money will not buy us happiness.
- A rich man cannot enter the kingdom of heaven.

All these opinions produce conditions that stop us being who we can be. Without money in the bank, I have lived my dream of travelling in Australia and overseas with the balance. I have enjoyed the friendship of many wonderful people; I have made friends from all walks of life and I have been happy. I must ask myself "who paid for me to this point in my life?" My well-being is me being who I am. My daily needs are openly catered for; my work covers expenses. There has never been a moment since this work came to me, that I have been threatened by disappointment and it gives me great pleasure to share it with you.
