"I am"

The human who supports my soul that planned to work in this field. I apply all of me to nurture my soul.

I will work through every step necessary for success in this field and all involved in my work will support me.

Let my thoughts bond with the soul matrix, and include all of the earth's people in the rewards my work will bring.

Let us not pollute the economy or the earth, but share in her wealth.

I am good for this contract because I am Healthy, Wealthy and Wise.

ELAINES QUOTE THIS MONTH:

Reason not what is wrong. Balance and praise what is right. Life is a form of reasons good or bad. You are the masterminded creator of what you think about. Think and praise all you desire and it will arrive with ease.

"Spiritual Wisdom In The Cells"
Chapter 9.
Our Desires Must Have a Purpose.

Everywhere we go, we are forced into considering something. We talk about many things but we only do what we really desire for ourselves. Many people talk for the sake of talking. These people never realise that what they say is of no use whatsoever if they do not do it for themselves. It is we who have the right to walk our own talk. It is we who fulfil the exercise to turn what we talk into action.
